

Salty is a play about penguins and people. It is set in one of the last remaining conservation zoos in a future gripped by catastrophes created by climate change. Animals have stopped procreating, humans suffer debilitating headaches, predators run rampant, and amidst it all, two male Adélie penguins decide to parent an egg in their small Antarctic exhibit.

Buy tickets at Voxel.org

Fri & Sat Conversation with 4MyCiTy
June 13 & 14 9:00 - 9:30 pm
Get to know 4MyCiTy after the show in the lobby of The Voxel.

Sun Company Talkback
June 15 9:00 - 9:45 pm
Chat with the Salty crew right after the show!

Wed & Thurs Conversation with Chesapeake Climate Action Network
June 18 & 19 9:00 - 9:30 PM
Meet the people behind CCAN in the lobby after the performance.

Fri & Sat Sea Grant takes over the lobby
June 20 & 21 9:00 - 9:30 PM
Learn more about Sea Grant via their information table before the show.

For more details and updates about these events, please visit our website or follow us on social media truepennyprojects.com!